Success Tip #15: Emulate People You Admire

So we are down to the wire! We are up to 15 – number #15 out of 19 of success strategies from The Jackie Jackson, the Jackie Jackson Show, as well as Jackie Buys Homes. I am yours truly, The Jackie Jackson, business coach, mentor and entrepreneur – helping people convert their purpose and passion into profit and we have been watching – or you have been watching – hopefully, you haven't turned me off by now, ahh you're still with me. Alright, so 15 out of 19 – success strategies to put you on your way so that you can be the most profitable you. So, #15 is for you to emulate the people that you admire.

Alright, so it's so important to have a list of people that you can look up to, because if you have a list of individuals that have successfully done the things that you want to do, or are currently doing in your life, why not mirror what they have already done? Like why are you reinventing the wheel? Just do what they did. It's guaranteed. They made it. That's why you liked them in the first place. That's why you admire them in the first place. Emulate those that are successful.

And too often than not, we are emulating people that are not successful. We run around here looking at people, they haven't done anything, and listening to them and listening to the advice that they have given you when they haven't even accomplished what you want to do. So, why are you listening to people who have not done anything that is aligning with your vision or your goals? Be around people that you admire, and to emulate them and mirror their success.

That is one of the best advice that I can give you, that anybody can give you as a matter of fact. Stay with the people who are doing well, and ask them questions, and try to emulate and mirror everything that they do, and even if you fall short, you're going to experience some type of success, because everything that they are doing has been successful so far! So, it only makes sense to hang out with the people that are successful!

I mean, I don't know, maybe it's just me. But that is, success strategy #15 of 19 from The Jackie Jackson and I look forward to the countdown of the remaining 16-19 and it's going to be great – it's going to be great. So hold on, don't give up on me now! We've come too far. Alright, talk to you soon in the next video - #16.
